President's Letter, December 27, 2017

I hope your winter holidays have been fine and festive, and that you are resolving to step up and volunteer to help us make 2018 Mask & Mirror's best year yet!

You have just 4 days to get your dues paid to qualify as a board candidate in the spring. I hope there will be a long list of qualified people ready, willing, and able to take on a board position in 2018. Please let me know how you would like to serve! Information about options to pay dues is included below. We'd also love to see your name on the list of MIGS even if you don't plan to run for a board position!

I want to thank the cast, crew, and staff that worked so hard to present Musical Comedy Murders of 1940-it did indeed break previous attendance and earnings for a main stage show. Congratulations!

Next show up is The Receptionist, our January 19-28 Unmasked production at the Heritage Center. Please support your fellow actors by attending and telling your friends about it. The actors and director are working hard, and having bodies in the seats means a lot. More details included below.

We had a phenomenal turnout of excellent actors at auditions for the March show, Picasso at the Lapin Agile, and after some very difficult deliberation, Director Benjamin Philip announced a cast filled with superb actors. Congratulations to the cast: details below. We are looking for carpenters, lighting and sound personnel for the production. Please contact me (Pat the Producer) at info@maskandmirror.com to volunteer.

Our thoughts begin to turn toward the spring show, Living Out, and director Linda Talluto asks you to save the dates for auditions: February 10, 11, and 12. More details below and to be announced as they develop on the website and our Facebook page.

Gary Romans and Kathryn Stevens are hatching a plan for new and exciting project for summer and fall of this new year, and it has spawned another ongoing opportunity starting this month. See Gary's announcements for details-I think you'll be excited!

And don't miss our public playreadings as an opportunity to get involved and practice your audition skills. We are excited to announce a new venue for the readings: the Community Center at Marquis Senior Community on Lower Boones Ferry Road in Tualatin. The readings are held the 3rd Tuesday of every month at 7 pm; the play to be read is announced in the newsletter, on the website, and on our Facebook page. Come join us!

As you can see, there are so many opportunities to get involved with Mask & Mirror. I hope to see your gorgeous face at one or more of these January activities!

Your President,
Pat

OPENING JANUARY 19, 2018

Cast:

Patti Speight as Beverly
Amelia Michaels as Lorraine
Michael Hoeft as Mr. Dart
Gary Anderson as Mr. Raymond

At the start of a typical day in the Northeast Office, Beverly deals effortlessly with ringing phones and her colleague's romantic troubles. But the absence of their boss, Mr. Raymond, as well as the appearance of a charming rep from the Central Office disrupts the friendly routine. As the true nature of the company's business becomes apparent, The Receptionist raises disquieting, provocative questions about the consequences of complicity with evil. A drama with dark comedy. Or a dark comedy with drama, depending on your perspective. All modern dress, one set.

Improve Your Improv

Mask & Mirror Community Theatre is offering free (but a hat will be passed for free-will donations) Improv Workshops on the 4th Tuesday of every month, starting Jan 23rd. These workshops will be held in the new Marquis Tualatin Community Center (<http://pdginc.com/portfolios/marquis-tualatin-community-center/>) in the evening - exact time will be in your invitation. Space is limited. See below for information on how to get your invitation. Preference will be given to those with improv experience (but improv experience is not required) and those who can follow directions!

NOTE: These will not be improv classes, but workshops where actors can practice their improv skills. These will be character focused improv workshops. You should have a willingness to arrive at the workshop IN CHARACTER, and not break character throughout the entire evening. Instructions will be with your invitation.

In order to get an invitation, please respond to Info@MaskandMirror.com with a brief resume with focus on your improv experience (no attachments, please - just put the basics in your email text).

Unto Thee I Grant ...

It's amazing what good things can happen if only you ask!

Grant #1 - Mask & Mirror has been awarded $4128 by the Regional Arts and Culture Council (RACC) to spend on the production of Living Out in May 2018.

Grant #2 - Mask & Mirror has been awarded $1200 by the Cultural Coalition of Washington County to spend on our two UnMasked shows in 2018.

Grant #3 - Thanks and Blessings to all those who worked on both of these grants. Nice job!

The Boys Next Door by Tom Griffin

In a communal residence in a New England city, four men with mental issues live under the supervision of an earnest, but increasingly "burned out" young social worker named Jack. Norman works in a doughnut shop but is unable to resist the lure of the sweet pastries, and takes great pride in the huge bundle of keys that dangles from his waist; Lucien P. Smith has the mind of a five-year-old but imagines that he is able to read and comprehend the weighty books he lugs about; Arnold, the ringleader of the group, is a hyperactive, compulsive chatterer, who suffers from deep-seated insecurities and a persecution complex; while Barry is a brilliant young man with schizophrenia who is devastated by the unfeeling rejection of his brutal father. The play includes moments of great poignancy when, with touching effectiveness, we are reminded that people with disabilities want only to love and laugh and find some meaning and purpose in the time that they are allotted on this earth; just like the rest of us.

Characters: 7 men and 2 women, ranging from teens to 60s+. We will need male readers; please step up if you are available.

Assigning roles in advance saves us time at the reading.

If you would like to read a role or have questions, please email Pat Romans at playreadings@maskandmirror.com or call 503-524-2058.

If you do not wish to read, we still need you. Come to watch and listen and take part in a short discussion after the reading.

Play Synopsis

Living Out tells the story of the complicated relationship between a Salvadoran nanny and the Anglo lawyer she works for. Both women are smart, hard-working mothers. Both want better lives for their children. The play explores what is the shared humanity between them...and what are the differences wrought by race, class, and Ana's illegal status. Through Ana, we understand what it means to leave a child in another country to come here, and the potential cost of sacrificing one's own child in order to care for someone else's. Through Nancy we understand the pressure on women today to "do it all," and the cost of making that choice. The play also looks at the prejudices and misconceptions between different cultures. How do we make someone "the other?" What is the cost of doing so? The play is both biting funny and tragic.

Character Descriptions

Ana Hernandez, early 30's, is a smart, proud, Salvadoran and a nanny.

Nancy Robin, late 30's, is a lawyer, a liberal and a new mom.

Bobby Hernandez, 30's, is Salvadoran, a carpenter with a good sense of humor and a big heart. Still, a man who grew up in a war.

Richard Robin, 30's to 40's, a public defender, but off-beat. His liberal politics and ideals are in conflict with his instincts as a new dad.

Wallace Breyer, 30's to 40's, is well off, helpful, with a charming smile. An excellent manager, sure of her opinions and eager to share them.

Zoila Tezo, 40's, Guatemalan, is a nanny, a woman who says what she thinks and likes to laugh.

Linda Billings Farzam, 30's, is a well intentioned, sweet, harried mom.

Sandra Zavala, late 30's, Mexican, is a nanny, positive and practical, an amiable survivor with a surprising depth of emotion.
