From The Prez:

Sometimes, you've just gotta shake things up, do it a little differently. That's what Rick Hoover is planning to do for the next few weekends with Mask & Mirror's first main stage show of the 2018-2019 season, "Dearly Departed". A cameo role (Bud Turpin) will be played by a different member of our local Portland arts and media scene each night! Our currently scheduled cameo performers include the following (as of newsletter publication time):

Nov 2: John Erickson, K103

Nov 3: Michael Allen Harrison, renowned composer/musician

Nov 4: John Cook, Tigard mayor

Nov 9: Byron Beck, Northwest blogger

Nov 10: David Salesky, KATU News

Nov 11: Lincoln Graves, KATU News

Nov 16: Jim Little Weather NorthWest (former KGW-TV weatherman)

Nov 17: TBA

Nov 18: Scott Tom, 106.7 The Eagle

Rick used this same cameo role technique when he directed this show in Boise ID many years ago - and it was a success. Local media celebrities can bring extra publicity and therefore attendance at a show. I know I'm looking forward to seeing the results for Mask & Mirror!

Thanks

John Bartholomew

Despite their earnest efforts to pull themselves together for their father's funeral, the Turpins' other problems keep overshadowing the solemn occasion. Amid the chaos, the Turpins turn for comfort to their friends and neighbors, an eccentric community of misfits who just manage to pull together and help each other through their hours of need, and finally, the funeral.

NOTE: Written in the early 1980s, the play (and the Director!) uses terminology no longer PC. Although a comedy, the play handles disabilities realistically and with sensitivity.

Mr Corbin - Normal, any age, any ethnicity

Senator Clarke - Normal, any age, any ethnicity, older is better

Written for Mrs Fremus; Mrs Warren; Clara to be played by one actor. We will use 1 to 3 actors depending on audition talent available.

Written for Mr Hedges; Mr Corbin; Senator Clarke to be played by one actor. We will use 1 to 3 actors depending on audition talent available.

In a communal residence in a New England city, four men with mental issues live under the supervision of an earnest, but increasingly burned out young social worker named Jack. The comedy includes moments of great poignancy when, with touching effectiveness, we are reminded that people with disabilities want only to love and laugh and find some meaning and purpose in the time that they are allotted on this earth, just like the rest of us.

Although the above description of the play may make it seem as though The Boys Next Door is a heavy-handed drama, it's actually a story filled with very funny moments. But for the play to work, the audience must be laughing with the characters and not at them.
