

Mask & Mirror Community Theatre

Play Proposal Guidelines, 2024-2025 Season,

Play proposals and scripts will be evaluated by the Play Selection Committee (PSC) and if approved, will be forwarded to the Executive Board for final approval in the spring of 2024. Mask & Mirror presents 3 mainstage shows at Rise Church and 2 Unmasked shows at the Tualatin Heritage Center each season.

Please submit your proposal by November 1, 2023.

Please include the following in your play proposal:

Theatrical resume, with directorial and theatrical experience and education. If this is your first time proposing a play for M&M, please include 2 theatrical references.

Play information

Name of play, playwright, publisher, royalties.

Venue for this play--Rise for Main Stage, Tualatin Heritage Center for UnMasked.

Short synopsis of plot and description of characters, and any technical requirements.

Please include any additional personal information about you or your relationship to this play.

Providing a copy of the script would greatly speed the process of selection. It can be sent electronically to Robin Michaels, secretary, at microb68@comcast.net. If you wish to provide a hard copy, please email microb68@comcast.net for more information.

Please note that you may be asked to consider a play other than your submission.

If you are interested in directing for us but do not have a particular play in mind, please send us a letter of interest and your resume. We may suggest a play which has been approved by the committee. We can provide a script of the play for your consideration.

Mask & Mirror is pleased to announce that we will pay directors a stipend.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of the process, please feel free to contact us.

We hope to hear from you soon!

Thank you,
Robin Michaels, secretary
