Online Performances Continue with "Help Desk"

"Help Desk" by Dan Zolodis

Dates: March 19-21 2021

Directed by Rick Hoover

With a cast of over 20 Mask & Mirror performers

When you call the help desk, you're looking for a solution - but your problems might just be beginning. Whether you're getting shamed about your inability to log in, giving your credit card information to a scammer, or having serious conversations with a clown, customer service calls spiral into absurdity for the customers and employees alike in this hilarious comedy.

The comedy "Help Desk" is a series of 13 vignettes about the trials and troubles people have as either help desk employees or callers. Issues from not being able to log into the network, to boyfriend breakups, to being on hold and then bounced from one person to the next are handled in humorous fashion that everyone can relate to. We have a large cast of familiar and not so familiar faces to entertain and bring a smile and laugh to your day. And remember "did you turn it off and then back on" and "is it plugged in" are important to understanding the humor in each of these scenes.

Audition Notice

Mask & Mirror would like to announce our Zoom-based auditions for "Motherhood Out Loud", a virtual production. There's a bit of laughter, a bit of tears, and a bit of language in these stories, but the one true message throughout is love.

Auditions will be held March 14th and 15th. We will be casting 3-6 females and 1-2 males.

Auditions will be 15 min intervals consisting of cold reads from the script. The production, set in monologued vignettes, will be recorded and then live streamed on Mother's Day weekend. Do you have to be a mother to audition? No, but we are looking for actors who are passionate about Motherhood. In that thread, we do have 3 monologues that do require specific actors:

- a Jewish woman age 30-50

- a woman from India age 40-60
- a male actor that identifies as LGBTQ+ age 40-50

As always, the director encourages any and all actors to audition, and hopes to see your faces soon.

Sides and time slots can be requested from bellabutton525@yahoo.com

Zoom link will be given upon request.
